Dear Ms Sharma,

Thank you for contacting StratAIR customer relations.

We have received your delayed-flight compensation claim and assigned it the reference number SR-2025-234-001407. A member of our customer relations team will review your claim within 21 working days and will contact you with our decision.

Whilst your claim is being reviewed, please retain your boarding pass and any receipts for reasonable additional expenses incurred as a result of the delay.

You can read our policy on flight disruption compensation, including the full list of circumstances which we consider extraordinary under the Air Passenger Rights regulations, on our website.

Kind regards,

StratAIR Customer Relations

Subject: Compensation claim, flight ST3214, 14 August 2025

Dear StratAIR Customer Relations,

I am writing to claim compensation under UK Regulation (EC) No 261/2004 in respect of StratAIR flight ST3214 from London Heathrow (LHR) to Rome Fiumicino (FCO), scheduled to depart on Thursday 14 August 2025 at 11:25 BST. PNR K9XB2P, e-ticket 4571023109876, seat 14C.

The flight was significantly delayed and did not depart until 18:25 BST, arriving in Rome at 21:04 CEST (6h 54m after the scheduled arrival time of 14:10 CEST). I was travelling alone on a leisure trip and the disruption caused me to miss a dinner reservation I had booked in Rome that evening, as well as a pre-paid hotel transfer.

Under UK Regulation (EC) No 261/2004 a delay of more than three hours on arrival entitles passengers to fixed compensation, unless the carrier can rely on the extraordinary circumstances defence at Article 5(3). For a flight of this distance (London to Rome, approximately 1,438 km) the applicable amount is GBP 220 per passenger

I would be grateful if you could acknowledge receipt of this claim and confirm the timeframe within which I can expect a substantive response. I attach my boarding pass and a screenshot of the FlightAware tracking page for the flight, which records the delay and the reason given.

Please contact me at this email address or on 07712 884 023.

Yours sincerely,
Priya Sharma
