Dear Vanessa,

I am copying Tobias and Iris into this email given that I have not had any substantive response from HR.

It is now 31 days since my final pay was due to be made (13 April 2026) and 30 days since I first wrote to you about it. The only response I have received was your acknowledgement of 14 April, in which you said you would come back to me with an update. I have not heard anything further since, despite a follow-up on 28 April.

Please treat this email as formal notice that, unless I receive payment in full of all sums due to me within seven (7) calendar days of the date of this email (i.e. by 21 May 2026), I will pursue this matter through the formal channels available to me without further notice. The sums I say are due are:

Sums claimed (gross)

- March 2026 wages: £2,800.00 (unauthorised deduction, s.13 / s.23 Employment Rights Act 1996)
- Pay in lieu of 8 days' accrued but untaken holiday: £1,033.85 (reg. 14 Working Time Regulations 1998)
- Q4 25/26 commission, confirmed in writing by Tobias Rhodes on 17 March 2026: £1,500.00

Total: £5,333.85 gross

By way of formal escalation I intend to:

1. Begin ACAS Early Conciliation and lodge an Employment Tribunal claim under s.23 ERA 1996 for unauthorised deductions and breach of the Working Time Regulations 1998.
2. In parallel, bring the £1,500 commission as a breach-of-contract claim in the Employment Tribunal under the 1994 Extension of Jurisdiction Order.
3. Reserve the right to claim any further sums in respect of statutory interest, costs and (where applicable) the Tribunal's discretion to award compensation for non-payment.

I would very much rather not go down that route. I have been a loyal and committed employee for the best part of two years and I am asking, plainly, to be paid the wages I have earned. Please make this a priority and confirm payment by return.

If there is any information you need from me to release payment (bank details, P45 query, anything else), I will provide it the same day.

Regards,
Ryan Patel

Hi Vanessa,

Following up on the email below. It's now been two weeks since I first wrote and I haven't heard back, and I still haven't received any pay or a payslip for March.

I'm starting to get worried. To save you flicking back, here is the outstanding balance as I have it (all gross):

Outstanding amounts (gross)

- March 2026 salary: £2,800.00
- Accrued holiday pay, 8 days at (£33,600 / 260): £1,033.85
- Q4 25/26 commission confirmed by Tobias: £1,500.00

Total outstanding: approx. £5,333.85 gross

Please could you let me know what's going on, and when I can expect payment? If there is a hold-up I'd rather know now and discuss it than keep chasing in the dark. Happy to jump on a call if that would be easier.

Best,
Ryan

Hi Ryan,

Thanks for flagging this. I'm looking into it with payroll now and I'll come back to you as soon as I have an update.

Kind regards,
Vanessa

Hi Vanessa,

I hope you're well. I'm writing about my final pay, which was due to land yesterday (13 April 2026). I've checked my account this morning and nothing has come through, and I also haven't had a payslip.

Please could you check what's happened and confirm when I'll be paid? My understanding is that the payment should include:

1. My final month's salary for March 2026 (£2,800 gross).
2. Pay in lieu of the 8 days of accrued but untaken holiday I had on my last working day.
3. The Q4 25/26 commission of £1,500 that Tobias confirmed in writing on 17 March before I left (I can forward you the email if helpful, though I think you were copied).

If there's anything you need from me to get this sorted, please let me know.

Thanks,
Ryan
